BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.—Acts 4:25.

Identity of the 'farm' home last week escaped even the perspicacity of Bob Sartnell, usually adept at such matters, but Mrs. Myrtle Thomas was the first one to call in and identify it as the home of Miss Madie Moore in Elliott. Bob is sorter slipping and, if he slips on the picture shown on this page, we are going to have to get Charles Perry to preview them.

I'll tell you one thing, though. Miss Madie, a sorter of on & off subscriber, is 'on' again.

Wews of Davises: Speck is off trying to get some poor dude who escaped to the Rio Grande Valley, while Eddie is home sick, and Jewell has installed her air-conditioning unit in Eddie's home to keep him cool. Speck missed a big FBI meeting held in City Hall Tuesday afternoon.

More Davis news: Heard that Mrs. Gene Davis in Jackson has been under the weather.

One of 'Miss' Eloise's tenants shot another one last week end. The shooter has been boarding at Hotel de Jail.

Estimates of the amount of cash money found by Julius Townes in an old chimney at the Golliday old home, vary from 65 cents to $165,000 Julius aint said nothing.

Jitney Jungle and the GCW certainly have 'started something' in this series of farm pictures.

Miss Lizzie Horn got us to send the GCW a year to Miss Addie Barrow who has retired from Grenada Schools after a quarter of a century and has gone back home to Franklin, Kentucky where, we hope, Miss Barrow, a mighty fine woman, will live happily.

Dr. Caruthers' brother in San Francisco got a strong taste of the GCW when he was reading his mother's copies, and is now getting a regular treatment.

Here's a lamb returned to the fold in the person of Mrs. Joe B. Williams, Sr. Welcome back, Sister Williams.

Ed Underwood has blossomed out in a brand new car. You know how big, rich oil folks are.

From what I can and do hear around here, folks of this county are going to stick with Jim Eastland. They know what Jim did about cotton allotments and appreciate it and will remember him on election day. We would have been in a helluva shape indeed, had not Jim been up there pitching for us.

Monday, Andrew, old man Meek and I went to Enid fishing. Together we caught 36 bass: the limit of 15 each for me and Andrew, and 9 for Mr. Meek. For me it was a record in two ways: the first time I ever caught the limit and the first time I did not get the hell beat out of myself.

Sam Wade has not been fishing, but he has been eating bass pretty regularly; guess somebody gave him a mess.

I'm going 'out to visit Cap Oliver pretty soon and get the real low-down on this 'new factory' business, that is if he will give me the low-down.

Correction: Burialman Hemphill aint the only 'inspector' at the Corner Drug Store building. Herman Heath dont miss much time there.

Jake Gowan's wife has been visiting up in Water Valley, leaving Jake to the miserable fate of eating in cafes.

His mama came in and renewed for the valiant airman, Lt. F. W. Criss, Jr. up in Newberg, N. Y.

And, dont forget that Edna Campbell's pretty gal's fine young husband is a new doctor now since he got his diploma at Tulane.

I guess Mississippi will stay in the Union in spite of a good deal of talk about secession.

Wonder what Ed Crane is doing??

McQUAY, INC. TO LOCATE
FACTORY HERE

Big Industry — Big Payroll

William H. Fedric, chairman of the Industrial Committee of the Grenada County Chamber of Commerce, last week received a letter from Mr. R. J. Resch, president of McQuay, Inc., of Minneapolis, authorizing official announcement that the company will locate a manufacturing plant in Grenada County in the immediate future. The concern will locate a complete plant here, in which air conditioning and commercial refrigeration will be manufactured and assembled.

The above announcement is the climax of much work by the Grenada County Chamber of Commerce to locate another strong industry in this community to balance the present industrial set-up. The Industrial committee of the C of C, composed of Mr. Fedric, J. H. Oliver, Donald Ross and L. D. Boone, Sr., has spent much time and work with officials of McQuay, Inc., in an effort to locate the plant in this county. The committee made a trip to Minneapolis in connection with the project and officials of McQuay had spent considerable time in Grenada in obtaining data toward moving here.

Following the committee's trip to Minneapolis the company had indicated it would locate here, which action was confirmed last week. The production engineer and the vice-president in charge of manufacturing have been in Grenada this week working out details of a building and a proposed site. The officials went from here to Jackson to complete details leading up to working out an estimate of the cost in order that a figure for the bond issue can be determined.

The contract between this community and McQuay, Inc., has been approved by the BAWI Board of Jackson. As soon as details are worked out as to the actual cost of the plant a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity will be obtained from the BAWI Board and Proceedings will start toward an approval of a bond issue by citizens of the community.

Present plans for the industry call for a building of 80,000 square feet for manufacturing and office space and 40,000 square feet for warehouse space. When initial facilities are at maximum operation the industry will employ from 400 to 500 male employees. The tentative site of the plant is the area between Highway 51 and the Illinois Central Railroad, South of the Plant. The site formerly was the location of a small airport immediately after World War 2. If present plans are carried out the contract for the building could be let no later than August.

McQuay, Inc. is a well operated and managed manufacturing concern with a splendid record of progress in a market which has reached a very small percentage of saturation, and in a market which shows a tendency of enjoying a progressive future. The firm was organized during the depression years and has enjoyed a steady growth.

McQuay, Inc., manufactures 42 percent of all the coils used in the refrigeration and air conditioning industry in the country, not only manufacturing their own products, but also manufacturing for some of the other leading nationally known brands.

Talented Pianist To Appear At Orchestra Hall, Chicago

Miss Patricia Sage, talented pianist and vocalist, has again achieved honors in music circles in the City of Chicago where she is a junior student at the American Conservatory. She recently won the Annual Commencement Concerto Contest, in which piano, violin and voice students appeared. The winner in this event, Miss Sage will appear with the Conservatory Symphony on Thursday, June 10 at Orchestra Hall in Chicago, at the Commencement Concert. Her mother, Mrs. John Sage of Grenada plans to attend the concert.

Another recognition of Miss Sage's talents came even more recently when she, who is a voice student of Lela Fletcher in Chicago, was chosen for the Mezzo-Soprano role in the opera 'Marta', which will be presented July 17th by the Rockford, Ill. Civic Opera Company.

Miss Jan Rodriguez who recently appeared here in a joint recital with Miss Sage will sing the soprano role in the opera.

Miss Sage will be busy for the next 10 weeks of this summer, as she is to be musical director at Camp Hastings, YMCA camp located near Chicago.

She is the daughter of Mrs. John Sage of Grenada and the late Mr. John Sage of Bruce. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Lufkin of Grenada.

EDITORIALS

Let Neither Side Be Too Hasty

It seems that every writer and commentator in the nation has been talking and arguing about and seeking means to circumvent the very important and recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court regarding segregation in the public schools.

It seems to me to be rather foolish and futile to argue WITH a unanimous decision of the court of last resort of a big nation, however bad the news is.

It seems to me the better thing to do is to do, as I do with diabetes - live with the diabetes. So, in the school matter, maybe the better thing to do is to try to live with it.

Already we hear of the hot-headed, intemperate members of each race, the intemperate whites saying, we just can't have it; the intemperate Negroes saying, we are going to have ALL of it TOMORROW.

In general, I will say that nobody ever gets TOO far, TOO fast. Big changes, as this change will cause, have to come slowly and by degrees.

Intemperate folks, of both sides, will only muddle up the matter.

Let me delve into the past, some of which I have actually seen, some of which I have heard. I will not guarantee to be absolutely accurate in what I say, however.

I know this to be a fact: that, following the Civil War, a new day seemed to have dawned for the folks whom Lincoln freed with his Emancipation Proclamation. For about 20 or 30 years, Negroes began to vote in Grenada County in ever-increasing numbers. Negroes held elective offices. There were settlements of Negroes all over Grenada, like south of where I sit on Green Street, like where W. E. Jackson on South St. now lives, like a considerable area just west of the Lockett property. In short, non-segregation, so far as homes were concerned, was advanced.

Most of the Negroes, born in that period, could read and write, indicating that members of that race had pretty good schools then. Somewhere along there, darkness for the Negroes set in. The impetus given the Negroes by the Civil War's unsuccessful end, seemed to stagger to a halt. Negro schools went down. Negroes ceased to vote under any circumstances. Scattered settlements of Negroes in all-white parts of town merely vanished. What happened there, I don't know. I was not born then, but my guess is this: that intemperate, hot-headed Negroes, aided and encouraged by idealists from the North, wanted to move TOO far, TOO fast and, in doing so, forfeited many early gains.

Until the recent decision of the supreme court, intelligent Negroes, aided by intelligent white folks, Negroes as a race were making phenomenal headway. A REAL advance had been made in the 'separate but equal' school idea, even if the start had been postponed for about 60 years.

All of this advance, as well as the greater advance visualized by the supreme court's decision, could and may be halted by hasty white folks who 'don't want to do nothing' or by hasty Negroes who want TOO much TOO fast. The Negroes could go back into a period of darkness which characterized the long period between the Civil War's end and the 1890s, when, it seems, the Negroes' star of hope began fading again.

I did not pop off with a lotta stuff right after the announcement of the decision. On the contrary I have been doing a lot of thinking, thinking of what I have seen and of what I have heard by a Southern fireside. I have been thinking that six generations of us Whitakers have lived here in Grenada since the early 1810s, that each generation has 'lived with' Negroes and got along with them and that this writer expects to keep on living with and among them, and keep on 'getting along with them.' I am not cursing the Negroes or the Supreme Court, or anybody else. But I am advising neither side to be hasty, hot-tempered, or intemperate in word or act.

Ear Of America

A good deal has been said lately about the need for an Ear of America as well as a Voice of America. There is a growing recognition that the United States has been failing in some important ways to understand what other nations are thinking and why.

That gallant soldier who refuses the name of hero, Maj. General William F. Dean, has written a book that shows how much of value the listening ear and humble heart can learn. While enduring the terrible physical hardships of his Korean imprisonment—no more terrible in many respects than the normal hardships of his captors, he admits with characteristic honesty—he made many discoveries.

The most important was that the ordinary Communists who guarded me and lived with me really believed that they were following a route toward a better life for themselves and their children. Not fine words, not bullets but a practical program of help is the only answer to such a faith, he implies. And understanding is the answer to the hatred for Americans he found among otherwise kindly though semi-barbaric enemies.

Their hatred was for the self-confident, alien who callously called all Koreans 'gooks' and were now, through the evil necessities of war, dropping bombs on Korean women and children. Part of this enmity would never have arisen, General Dean believes, if American officers and men had behaved with more tact and respect for Koreans in the years before the fighting began.

And in a speech delivered in Boston a few days ago he pointed out that every time stones are thrown at a Negro's house in the United States or conspicuous injustice is done to a Jew or a Nisei, Americans may soon forget the incident but it is known by heart to every Communist schoolboy.

Held prisoner as General Dean was, there is little to do but listen and think. Americans as a whole may learn to think more clearly the harder they listen.

SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

Just to show that they do something in Carroll County besides fishing and selling whiskey, Mrs. George Herbert sent in a 5 lb. head of lettuce Saturday.

We got out our prining shears Saturday and cut off a good many delinquents, but did not get to Tom Vance because he got in ahead of time.

There is bound to be 'something' about fishing. Andrew and I went to Enid Friday afternoon. Eventually we struck a school of small bass. Both of us were casting plugs. Andrew was catching about 6 to my 1. I said, hell you have the RIGHT bait. So we swapped rods and bait. He kept on catching bass, one after another, while I kept on catching nothing. I don't know what it is, but it is 'something' which, I guess, is just 'knowing how.'

Pvt. Grover Hendricks Cunningham, Bill's boy and Grandpaw Grover's grandson, is now in Korea where he is attending a company clerk's school. It is a helluva long ways to go to school when there is a pretty fair school right in Holcomb.

I note that Sam Wade and Tommie Darras, who have been estranged about something or other, have signed an armistice. Sam was eating a baked duck there the other night. Any day, now, I am expecting Fisherman-Jeweler Davies to be eating there again.

One of our tenants, Scott Davis, and I went to fishing a while late Saturday afternoon in Black Hawk Lake. I caught seven or eight knotty bream, enough for the supper of Scott and his wife.

Things are 'coming out', following a series of heavy rains at Oxberry. Nearly everyone had to replant his cotton. Many replanted corn.

Several parties of Beat 5 folks went into White Lake, in spite of hellish roads, during the week end and were rewarded with a heap of bream, using roaches and small crawfish, and the old reliable, earth worms.

News About Whitaker Cats: Last week we were able to report that Buckingham IV has survived the 'hoof & mouth' disease, or whatever besets the cats in our neighborhood. This week, we report with deep regret that little Gwen and little Mabel were not so lucky. They died Friday. It so happens, however, that Buckingham IV was and is my favorite cat. I hope he has got over whatever DID all him for good and that he will continue to be a joy in our household.

Grandpaw Gunter did not know what his granddaughter's name was but, this Hylander baby was named Joyce Elizabeth, according to a postal card received from the child's parents, Capt and Mrs. W. R. Hylander, Jr. in West Point, N. Y.

John Beyd has men and equipment enough to put thru the Holcomb-Oxberry stretch of blacktopping, for which John has the contract, in record time. He and his men don't waste any time.

I guess all country newspaper offices have what we call 'copy' baskets, a place we pitch matter to be set up in type. One never gets to all the 'copy'. A lot of it is then marked 'next week' and kept in the basket until 'next week', but 'next week' hardly ever gets here. As a consequence, the basket gets filled with 'next week' stuff. Right now this minute, I am cleaning out the basket, tossing away real good stuff that we just never have room in the paper to publish. From now on, the basket will again fill up until it again gets full of 'next week' stuff; then we will have to clean it out again.

Many folks bring in stuff; as they put it, 'to help fill up the paper.' God knows we throw away enough stuff every week to fill TWO issues. Even the word 'editor' means 'one who takes out,' not 'one who puts in.'

CHICKEN AND RICE SALAD

Miss Mary McMeekin, Chief Food Economist with Rice Consumer Service, sent the recipe which is being featured in today's column.

This recipe should appeal to homemakers who need to stretch the food budget and to homemakers who like to cook with cold—the cold of your electric refrigerator.

There is more to this salad than meets the eye. Underneath the snow white surface of this "Chicken and Rice Salad" is goodness that will bring an exclamation of "THIS IS WONDERFUL" to the lips of all who taste it.

Mold the salad in an interesting shape if you wish, or let it congeal in a square or oblong pan. Serve it on a bed of greens, or garnish it with a product of your imagination.

What is important is to experience the flavor of this marvelous tasting "Chicken and Rice Salad" which won a first place award in the rice and meat division of the Creole Rice Cookery Contest at the 1951 International Rice Festival.

INGREDIENTS

1-1/4 cups diced boiled chicken
1 cup cold boiled rice
3/4 cups chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped green peppers
1 tablespoon chopped sour pickle
6 chopped stuffed olives
12 pecan halves chopped
3/4 tablespoon chopped parsley
2/3 cups mayonnaise
2/3 cups whipped cream
1 tablespoon gelatin
2 cups cold water
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash of black pepper and red pepper

Dash of paprika

PREPARING THE FLUFFY WHITE RICE: To make 3 liberal cups of fluffy rice: put 1 cup of uncooked rice, 2 cups of cold water and 1 teaspoon of salt in a two-quart saucepan and cover with a tight-fitting lid. Bring to a vigorous boil and then turn the heat as low as possible—leave over this low heat for 14 minutes. Turn off the heat. This cooking time results in firm grains of cooked rice. (For extra tender grains, allow the rice to steam (with heat off) an additional 5 minutes before removing the lid.)

Never remove lid nor stir rice while it is cooking. After rice is cooked, remove lid, lift rice gently with fork to allow rice to steam dry to the desired consistency. It is then ready—perfectly cooked and the grains will be separate and fluffy. This method allows all the water to be absorbed and the full nutritional value of the rice to be retained.

Keep left-over cooked rice in the refrigerator in a covered container at all times. You will find it convenient for making many quick, easy and delicious dishes.

METHOD: Combine chicken, rice, celery, green pepper, sour pickle, olives, pecans and parsley. Add mayonnaise and whipped cream. Add the gelatin which has softened in cold water for 5 minutes and has been melted over hot water. Cool. Add the salt, pepper and paprika. Mix all the ingredients well and chill in a mold or pan.

This recipe makes eight servings.

That's the editor's job: to select from all the stuff put in the paper, the small amount of matter that, in his opinion, should go into print. The same principal applies to editors of big papers as applies to editors of small papers like the GCW. It is a cinch that neither editor can get into the paper everything that folks think should go in.

The finest issue or any newspaper, correlating the facts about the recent Supreme Court decision about segregation was not the New York Times, or the Chicago Tribune, or Time, Life or any bigtime paper like that, but the Deer Creek Pilot of the small town of Rolling Fork, Sharkey County, Mississippi, edited by Hal DeCell.

John Andrews is messing up our program in that he has been trying to make a carpenter out of one of our main helpers, Fred Austin.

It might have been T. A. Coleman who came here from West Texas to buy O. W. Scott's property in the 'camp area'. Anyway, they say, he went outdoors one morning and a few drops of rain fell in his face, whereupon he fainted. A friend nearby resuscitated him only after throwing 3 or 4 buckets of sand in his face.

Until Will Williams died, I had forgotten that he was brother of 'Totie-Wagonwheel' Williams who was in the war with Jim Keeton, William Wright, me, etc. Totie has lived in Clarkdale ever since World War I. He got the name, Totie, in school in Grenada, the name Wagon-wheel in the army.

Grenada Farms, INCORPORATED

Social Justice

Lesson for June 6, 1964

IS THE country prospering? Ask the Chamber of Commerce and they will give you a commercial answer, as you would expect. They will give you figures on the national income and the national debt; they will furnish you with statistics on farm prices and freight-car loadings and employment figures. If all these look good, then the C. of C. will tell you the country is sound and prosperous. Away back in the times of the Bible, in the administration of Jeroboam II, if there had been an Israelite Chamber of Commerce, they must have been optimistic, even enthusiastic, about the prosperity of their country. Wealth had risen to unprecedented levels, trade was active, the territory of Israel was growing. There never had been so many millionaires in Israel.

Sour Note

There was just one man, so far as we know, who did not see eye to eye with the optimists in Israel. His name was Amos and he lived in the back districts as a hired man, perhaps as a migrant worker. He had had a good look at Israel from the seamy side, for his layer in the social cake was somewhere below the bottom. He is known to history as a prophet, but he did not claim that title for himself. "The Lord spoke to me," he said, and that was enough. Perhaps the reason he did not care for the label of prophet is that he did not want to be mixed in people's minds with such Yes-men as King Ahab had gathered around him. But he believed and we believe that he had the mind of God, and that is what a prophet has. He went up to Bethel, one of the main cities of Israel, and there made some speeches that nobody liked. He even got himself attacked as subversive. At all events, he brought what the leaders of Israel thought was a very sour note into the sweet chorus of prosperity.

What Is Happening to People?

Amos looked at "prosperity" in another light, or we may say he measured prosperity with a different yardstick. Whether a country is on the up-and-up or on the down-and-down is not to be discovered by looking at dollar signs or counting freight cars. The real question is: What is happening to people? The first of all questions is: Which seems to you more important, people or property? If they both seem equally important, or if property seems even more important, then Amos would say you are certainly using the wrong yardstick. He looked over the nation of Israel and he saw two classes of people, the poor and the rich. The poor went to jail for robbing the rich, but no one ever jailed the rich for robbing the poor. The rich were growing richer and the poor were growing poorer. This was not the worst of it, for in the process of becoming wealthy, the luxury-classes of Israel were growing both softer and harder than they should be—softer by indulging in luxuries, harder by indifference to the troubles of the people at the bottom of the pile.

A Few Questions

"Social Justice" or its opposite, social injustice, is a big all-inclusive phrase. If you think it has nothing to do with religion, you have the Bible against you. Let us bring it down to cases, as Amos did. Is there social justice in your community, your state? Before you can answer that cover-all question, you will have to break it down into particular questions. For example: Are there any second-class citizens in your community? Are the same jobs open to all, at the same wages or salary? If a man has to borrow money can he get it at a reasonable rate of interest or do the loan sharks run wild where you live? Are the responsible citizens of your community and state willing to be taxed for the benefit of better schools? Compare salaries paid in your state to horse trainers, with salaries paid to school teachers. Do horses seem to be rated higher than children? Does every child in your state have an adequate opportunity for an education, or are children penalized for being born in the country?

MISS ADDIE BARROW BELOVED TEACHER PLANS TO RETIRE

Miss Addie H. Barrow for 25 years a member of Grenada Public School faculty as teacher and supervisor of study hall, has retired from her duties and will reside at her home in Franklin, Ky.

On Saturday of last week her nephew, Mr. Emmett Ashlock and wife and their son Jimmie, also her sister Mrs. Annie Ashlock came for Miss Barrow and they returned to Franklin, Ky. on Sunday. Miss Barrow is held in high esteem by the many thousands of citizens she has contacted through her association with them during the past 25 years, and one so beloved and respected as she will be greatly missed by all. The faculty members, the member of the Methodist Church, of which she was a devoted member, and the townspeople will all miss her.

Over a period of a week or so small social courtesies, also church service, were planned to honor Miss Barrow.

On Sunday evening, May 23 at the 7:30 service at the Methodist Church was dedicated to Miss Barrow. Rev. Sutphin paid respect and tribute to their good friend and teacher. Previous to this service, the Circle in which Miss Barrow had her auxiliary membership presented her a silver vase at a social hour following the regular meeting.

On Tuesday, May 25, Miss Sue Frances Watkins, who is a member of the Grenada School faculty, entertained at her suburban home at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in honor of Miss Barrow.

Delicious refreshments were served to friends and co-workers of the honoree.

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Mrs. Donald Ross and mother Mrs. W. J. Jennings graciously welcomed neighbors of theirs and Miss Barrow's at a planned party to honor Miss Barrow who is retiring from her school duties here. The hostess had prepared a box of stamped note paper and each guest wrote her name and address so that they be assured of hearing from Miss Barrow when she gets to her Kentucky home. The guests also wrote good wishes to Miss Barrow and these were presented her. The hostesses, Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Ross gave the honoree as a parting gift, a handsome round silver bowl, and in presenting it, Mrs. Jennings said "we give you a silver bowl full of good wishes to take with you to your home. For this occasion the home was beautifully decorated with gift bouquets. The hostess served sherbet and chicken salad sandwiches to the following neighbors Mesdames Ed Neely, G. W. Lambert, C. B. Shettles, Bryan Baker, Sr., Dick Long, L. C. Welker, Annie Bell McAllister, Joe Jackson and Miss Willie Smith.

On Thursday afternoon another of a series of parties for Miss Addie was at the home of Mrs. H. O. Thompson on Snider St. at 4 o'clock.

The hostess was on the faculty of Grenada School for a number of years and through her association with Miss Barrow a fine friendship was formed. Mrs. Thompson served a lovely refreshment plate to her guests.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Deaton and daughter, Sarilela had as their honor guest Miss Addie Barrow and her long time friend and associate, Miss Lizzie Horn as their supper guests at the City Coffee Shop Smorgasbord.

The county-unit system has worked satisfactorily in Coahoma County
for many years. Under this system, Coahoma County has miles and miles of hard-top county roads. All so-called improved county roads in Grenada County are merely plain gravel roads.

According to a recent audit, Grenada County's beats have $361,000

plus worth of road working equipment, which is a great deal more than Coahoma's county total.

"Farm of the Week" Last Week

—This Series Sponsored by Jitney-Jungle, Grenada.

The photo shown above is, after all,
not a farm home, tho the Moore family has long been identified with farming in this section, but it is the comfortable home of Miss Madie
Moore in Elliott, Grenada County, Mississippi. It is located right across the road from Gant's store in Elliott;

also located right across 51 Highway from the former Camp McCain reservation. One of the many roads to Carrollton (not shown in picture)
is right in front of this home.

Miss Madie is one of those thoroughly independent ladies who dont

ask any odds of anybody and, while the home is surrounded by farms
of all kinds, it is not a farm home
in the strict sense.

The aerial photographer saw a pretty home, in pretty surroundings,
and snapped it and there is no harm
done.

THE SLEEPING-PILL HABIT

Sleeping pills, unless taken under a physician's supervision, may be harmful. Foolish is the man who, without medical advice, thinks he must have one at bedtime. Although they are not habit-forming in the same sense as morphine, a psychological addiction often develops, especially in weak-willed individuals. When prescribed by a physician during illness, sleeping pills produce much-needed sleep and rest. On a physician's list of most important drugs, barbiturates rank high. But never take one unless it is ordered by your doctor. Only then is it safe.

South Mississippi Border Area Dedicates New Rural Telephones

EAST FORK—A new rural telephone project was placed in service here on Friday with prominent citizens of the community, of Amite County and the State, and representatives of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company
taking part in a celebration program.

The ceremonies were held at the East Fork Consolidated High School and a large crowd was on hand to hear Superintendent J. H.
Godbold's address of welcome to which Mayor J. W. Alford of Mc-Comb responded.

Sponsors of the celebration were the citizens of the East Fork Community and Mrs. John H. Prestridge was chairman of the committee which organized the affair and served a delicious supper at its conclusion.

Elliott Moore, one of the area's leading citizens, acted as Master of Ceremonies and introduced the speakers which included such celebrities as State Senator Kenneth Stewart, and State Representatives
T. F. Badon and F. T. Wall.

The history of the East Fork community, from its founding in 1810 as recited by Mrs. Clara Wilson, was one of the highlights of the occasion.

The Reverend C. L. Warrington,
Pastor of the East Fork Baptist Church, gave the invocation and the benediction was by Jerry Clower. The National Anthem was sung by Billy Rimes.

A brief address was delivered
by Frank R. Price of McComb, Manager of the Magnolia Electric Power Association, which company
along with the Mississippi Power

and Light Company, allowed Southern Bell wires for the East Fork project to be placed on a number of poles by means of the usual joint-use rental agreement between the companies.

Taking part in the ceremonies
as representatives of Southern Bell were G. W. Maxwell of Mc-Comb, Group Manager and J. M.
Phillips of Jackson, the Company's State Manager.

Mr. Phillips, making the principal address of the afternoon,
thanked the citizens of the area
for the helpful spirit of co-operation shown representatives of Southern Bell's Rural Development Department who secured the necessary right-of-way and were responsible for construction of the new facilities.

"Approximately 36 square miles
of Amite County along Highway
24 between East Fork and Mc-Comb are served by the facilities we are placing in service, here today," Mr. Phillips stated. "The project required an investment of about $33,000.00," he said, "and it has added another 40 rural subscribers to the McComb exchange."

"While these are not large figures compared to sums expended on many other rural telephone projects in the State in recent months," he continued, "the project itself is of considerable importance to the area because it closes a gap between rural telephone work completed in adjoining parts of Amite County and other work in nearby areas to be completed later this year to fill out the rural coverage of the Mc-Comb exchange."

According to Mr. Phillips, the East Fork project is part of Southern Bell's plan for continued expansion of the State's rural telephone facilities. This statewide expansion job involved over 100
major rural projects last year, resulting in a net gain of over 5600
rural customers which required
the investment of approximately 2 1/2 million dollars of telephone company money in the State.

Since 1946, Mr. Phillips said, the telephone company has invested over 15 million dollars in Mississippi to increase the total number of rural telephones in the State from 3335 on December 1, 1946 to over 41,000 today.

First long distance call over the new facilities was placed by Luther Walters, popular resident of the East Fork Community. He talked with Hershel Grady, formerly a member of Southern Bell's Rural Development Department in Mississippi, but elevated last year to the job of Assistant Rural Development Supervisor in Atlanta.

The entire program at East Fork was recorded and rebroad-
cast over radio station WAFB, McComb.

SIXTH "HOSPITALITY-STATE" OBSERVANCE GETS UNDERWAY

The sixth annual observance of "Hospitality Month" throughout Mississippi gets underway in June with 125 communities actively participating in a program which last year helped create $271,000-699 in tourist business for the state.

Mississippi cities and towns
taking part in this year's program
have an opportunity to claim $1500 in cash prizes, in addition to being eligible to enter a "Miss Hospitality" entry in state-wide competition to be held on the Mississippi Gulf Coast and in Jackson
on June 22-26th.

"Hospitality Month", which has developed into the state's number one annual observance, is designed to emphasize the community's role in the development of this important new business.

Any incorporated Mississippi
town is eligible to enter the 1954
Community Travel Development
contest which carries a first prize
of $1,000, a second award of $300,
and a third prize of $200.

Communities will be judged for their travel development and promotion activities during the period from January 1st through July 16th, closing date of the contest.

One feature of the Community's program will be a "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up" contest with the winner eligible to enter the national contest to select "America's Cleanest Town".

Judging by an impartial panel of three judges, headed by an out-of-state expert, will be based on reports and scrapbooks submitted by communities participating. Emphasis will be placed on thoroughness of the community's program, participation by all citizens, and originality of ideas.

The Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board which sponsors
the observance has provided all communities taking part in the program with kits containing suggestions and materials to assist the Travel Development Committees which head up the local programs.

These kits contain application
blanks for both the "Miss Hospitality" contestant, and for the
"Community Travel Development Contest", along with rules and regulations governing both events.

Case histories which show how other communities in the past have conducted such programs are also included in the kits to help guide
these committees.

Two new items were offered communities this year. One is an attractive car bumper sticker carrying the words "Visit Mississippi, the Hospitality State", which is to be applied to cars bearing out-of-state license plates. The other is a "Dividend Check" to be used by business firms which derive any part of their income directly or indirectly from tourists.

These attractive slips in red and black read as follows: "Your Dividend Check. From Mississippi's Tourist Bank, Capital Stock $271,000,000. Invest Now In This Growing Business To Increase
Your Dividends."

The "Dividend Checks" will be used by such firms as hotels, motels, restaurants, Service Stations and others when paying bills by check and will emphasize the importance of Mississippi's growing tourist business to all individuals and firms receiving such check reminders.

tourists to the fact that June is

One big feature of the state-wide "Hospitality Month" observance in June is the "Miss Hospitality" contest and coronation, to be held this year, June 22-26th. Shown above center is the current "Miss

She was unanimously elected. Mrs. Guy Branscome was announced as a new member.

With roses in bloom in profusion in Mrs. Theil's garden, the topic discussed by Miss Bervil Elder, was roses and in her own thorough way, discussed varieties of roses to purchase, proper planting, pruning and fertilizer. She presented pamphlets on rose culture to the ladies.

A White Elephant Sale was staged at the close of the meeting to raise funds for the club.

Non-member guests present included Mrs. J. H. Neely, Jr., Mrs. E. H. McCulston, Mrs. W. L. Jensen and the hostess' great niece, Miss Ann Taylor Collins.

SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.—Acts 4:20

D. Wilkins, who got 'way behind' with his subscription, then got cut off, came in last week, paid us $2.50, but got back immediately into debt by taking out a subscription for his son, Ernie, Jr. at Duck Hill. D is still working for Preston Vance selling Dodges, etc. There is bound to be a moral somewhere in this tale: D's grandfather owned half of Chattanooga, and nearly every bit of land in and about Duck Hill. D liked his lick and, tho he seemed to have a good time, he lost most of his property. He consoles himself by thinking that, had he kept all the property, he would not have many friends. Let's get to Preston Vance.

He was raised sort of hard back in Little Texas. Aaron Lott got him in the CCC camp before the war, where Preston worked hard and saved his money. Preston went to the war and, again, saved his money. Now, D is working FOR Preston.

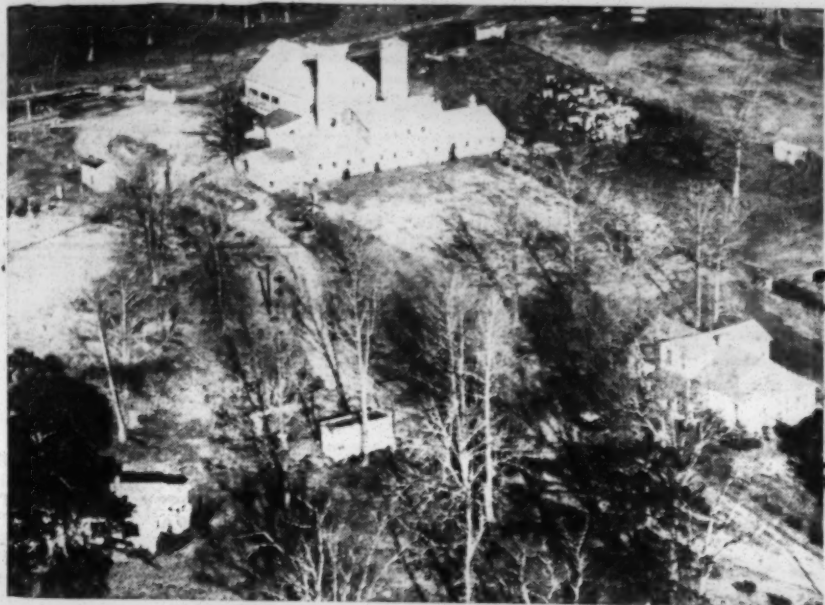

Vaughn and wife, now running the Railroad Lunch Counter which has served railroadmen and others so well, so long, may miss the old 'Jack Barn', next to the Baptist Church during the war, but now has an infinitely better place. When the City fired Vaughn, it looks like they kicked him upstairs.

The reason the cafe was known as the Jack Barn was: it was a ramshackled tin shack, built during the war for a shooting gallery, but used as a cafe. Joe McAfee had a jack which he transported to the cafe in a truck. Whenever the jack saw the cafe, he thought he was back home and began to bray. Hence the name, Jack Barn Cafe, so named by Sax and so forth.

Grenada Farms, Shown Week Before Last

—This series sponsored by Jitney-Jungle, Grenada

Due to the non-arrival of Mr. John F. Kraft before publication last week, the story of Grenada Farms, whose aerial photograph was shown week before last, did not appear as scheduled, but appears now.

It might well be called the story of how otherwise idle land was brought back to a high state of usefulness by Yankee ingenuity and hard work.

Back in 1925, when the gdrpublicans were in control of the nation, Mr. J. T. Thomas, acting for Grenada Bank, owned much land, including over 200 acres of the present Grenada Farms holdings. Mr. Thomas was an ardent believer in the theory that dairying was one of the keys which would unlock the hold that the gdrpublicans had on this section. John F. Kraft, of the cheese-making family of that name, was induced by Mr. Thomas to visit some of the Barksdale old lands then owned by the bank. The bank practically 'gave' over 200 acres to the Krafts. John Kraft got his brother, Frank Kraft, then in Michigan, to come here and bring his cows. Frank Kraft did move here and began work, improving the land, making permanent pastures, and building that handsome dairy barn which dominates the picture shown above.

Later, Grenada Farms, then and now partially owned by John F. Kraft, acquired from Mr. H. J. Ray another tract of land immediately east of the highway, but contiguous to the land secured from Grenada Bank. Grenada Farms, in no way owned by Kraft Cheese Co. or Kraft Foods Inc., is located about six miles north of Grenada and covers land on both sides of 31 Highway. The farms are managed by Mr. Warren Sisco, who has 90 Holstein Jersey milk cows. He has developed about 250 acres of permanent pastures and just recently put up 200 tons of grass silage. On the side, so to speak Mr. Sisco, has 9 acres of cotton land on the Kraft lands also rents some cotton land from Mr. Tornell.

While, back in the gdrpublican administration in 1925, Mr. Thomas 'gave' the land to the Krafts, the land then was not 'worth anything' in the standards of THAT day. Frank Kraft hauled the milk to the Kraft cheese plant, then in Water Valley, but was lucky to get 'gas back', as Hoover got the country in worse and worse economic plights, but the Krafts plugged on. Their initial cheese plant in Durant was only the beginning of 11 Kraft plants in Mississippi.

some of its milk from the dairy is under review is according to John F. Kraft a separate and distinct business. One is a producer of milk, the other a processor. Distribution of milk, as a family, Kraft ate his milk and even shared over many enterprises. J. F. Kraft has been one of the big Krafs the son of the founder, had a lot to do with the emergence from obscurity of the Kraft in two places in America. The Kraft has become synonymous with cheese and cheese is not the commodity with which members of the family are identified. Look Kraft Foods, the giant food industry.

John F. Kraft passed here Friday to look over what has become of his 'dreams come true'. Grenada Farms, but left by plane Saturday at the invitation of Mr. LeTourneau to help advise that industrial giant how best to develop a million acres of undeveloped land in Peru intended as future homes for displaced persons of Europe. A ship loaded with giant-sized equipment had been loaded in Vicksburg, had been by sea to the mouth of the Mississippi River and was that day being loaded 3500 miles up the Mississippi River near the site of the development. These are big figures, big later, Grenada Farms, then and Grenada Farms, Inc., the dairy in by big folks.

In Appreciation
I wish to express to the good people of Grenada my sincere appreciation for the many beautiful things they have done for me. The "Special Day" honoring me was perfect and I am still overcome with gratitude mingled with a sense of humility and unworthiness. For the beautiful letters and flowers, the television set, the generous check, the beautiful tributes paid me and for the generosity of the local papers, I am deeply grateful. To each and everyone, I extend my sincere thanks. Because of these expressions of your love and interest, my years of retirement will be happy years. —Gratefully yours, Lizzie Horn.
